Vocation Corner: The entire church rejoices in priestly ordinations occurring in many dioceses this weekend. They show a sign of life and vitality to each local church. Young men and women who might be intrigued and then inspired by the commitment of those called to the priesthood are among the graces received by these ordinations. Those who might be considering a vocation will be infused with new life as we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon us this weekend.

One thing I ask of the Lord, and this I long, to dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. (Ps. 27, 4)
That should be our daily prayer. That should be our daily desire. That should be our daily wish.

PENTECOST SUNDAY—DIFFERENT BUT THE SAME

Different gifts. This is the memorable line from the Second Reading (1 Cor 12:4-6).
There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;
There are different forms of service but the same Lord;
There are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.
This is all because of Baptism. The one Christ and the one Spirit is given to each one coming out of the font. But each one gets a handful, and not all, of spiritual gifts (charisms, really). Each gift, each charisms – given for some benefit – can only be used for someone else's good.
