That should be our daily prayer
That should be our daily desire
That should be our daily wish.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

AUGUST---GIFT OF CREATION

Activity: Recycle, work for clean air and water for everyone

MERCY MOMENT---We are not alone.

The entry to the kingdom of God, to heaven is described as passage through a narrow gate. But the path to it is pretty wide. It has to be, because this roadway has room for the nations of every language, sisters and brothers from everywhere. This is our pilgrimage – helping one another on the path to the kingdom, to our final home, to God.

~Who do I need to invite over for coffee, for lunch?

~Who needs my help down this common road to heaven?

We welcome and thank, Fr. Osang, for coming to St. Edward’s to celebrate the Eucharist this weekend with us. May God Bless you and thank-you.

CONDOLENCES:

Our Condolences to Garland and Linda Keck, with the passing of their niece, Angie Smith. May Angie and all who have been called to heaven, have peace and let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

BAPTISM:

Welcome and congratulations to Carson John Black on his Baptism into the Catholic Church this weekend. May the Lord bless you all the days of your life. Amen.

Also, Thank-you to Fr. Ray Engelhart for making the trip over to perform the Rite.

MISSION WEEKEND:

The weekend of Sept. 3rd & 4th, Fr. Joel A. Jores, a member of the Clerical Congregation of the Missionaries of Faith(MF) Philippine Province, will be here to speak with us. The purpose of their mission appeal is to ask assistance to support their vocation promotion and seminary program because their religious community does not charge seminarians for the seminary tuition fees. So through mission appeals they continue to support financially their vocation programs and it is the only means they have for now in order for them to continue providing priest to the universal church.
