

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time-Cycle C
November 6th, 2016

In response to an attempt to ridicule his teaching about life after death, Jesus again proclaims a resurrection of the dead, that life is indeed stronger than death itself. This is our eternal consolation and hope. Then will our joy be truly complete.

That should be our daily prayer

That should be our daily desire

That should be our daily wish.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

NOVEMBER---THANKSGIVING

Prayer: The Mass---Our Greatest Prayer

Patron Saint: St. Pope John Paul II

Faith in Action: Thank the priest, lectors, musicians, cantor, ushers, Extraordinary Ministers, Altar servers, and others who help us give glory to God.

Activity: Veteran’s Breakfast

MERCY MOMENT---No game-playing.

The Maccabees boys are clear today: even death by torture is not feared because life in heaven is next. The Sadducees, in trying to choose up sides, discover: who is married to whom in heaven is not a central question. Being in heaven is the central answer. With the love and hope and grace – all good gifts from God, Saint Paul tells us today – we await heaven. Not by playing game. But by good works and good words.

~What words of mercy can I speak?

~What works of mercy will I do?

~Recall that Pope Francis has added this work of mercy to each list: Care of our common home.

BOOK OF THE DEAD In the hallway is the Book of the Dead. Please sign the names of your faithfully departed so we may pray for them the month of November. Please let us remember our dead in a special way this week and this month of November which is dedicated to all the souls in purgatory.

A HEARTFELT THANK-YOU

We cannot fully express our appreciation for the support, love, and prayers from the St. Edward Parish family. Knowing we have our parish family is making the acceptance of our tragedy much less difficult. Thank-you all for everything, John and Leslie Robison.
